

Proficiency Diploma in Arts, Humanities & Technology FAQ

Who is eligible to enroll in this program?

All undergraduate students: 1-5 year students from any bachelor can join the program.

Can I recognize the classes towards my program requirements?

The courses included in these certificates cannot be recognized towards your bachelor degree requirements.

Will it be part of my bachelor degree?

The courses included in these certificates are not part of your bachelor degree study plan.

Is it an official program?

Yes, this is the first official stand-alone program launched by the Arts & Humanities Division.

Is this program free of charge?

No, this program is subject to fees separate from your Bachelor's tuition. In the academic year 2022-2023, the cost per credit is 380€.

Can I apply for a scholarship?

If you are a recipient of a scholarship to study at IE University, you can apply for a scholarship for this program. Please fill out this form to submit your application.

Are classes online or face to face?

All class sessions will be face to face, including off-site learning. There is no option to do the courses online.

Proficiency Diploma in Arts, Humanities & Technology FAQ

Can students from Segovia participate in this program?

Currently, as we focus on the deployment of the program, it is only available to Madrid students. While we hope to launch the program on the Segovia campus for future intakes, Segovia students are welcome to enroll in the Inter-Sessions in June.

Do I have to enroll in both courses for each certificate?

In order to enroll and accredit the knowledge from any of the certificates, you must commit to taking both courses.

If I'm in my last year of my bachelor degree, can I participate?

Yes, you can enroll in any of the intakes taking into account that this is an extra workload on top of your bachelor degree requirements.

When will all the certificates be offered?

In the early phase of the program the enrollment offer will be limited, but the program is expected to be offered in all four intakes eventually (Fall, Spring, Inter-Session I and Inter-Session II).

Who will teach the courses?

The Certificate courses will be taught by the Arts & Humanities faculty, with high-profile guest speakers.

Will I get a diploma for each certificate?

All students that complete both courses under a certificate will receive an IE University separate credential accrediting the knowledge acquired.

Proficiency Diploma in Arts, Humanities & Technology FAQ

When is the pre-registration deadline?

Pre-registration is now open until November 15th, 2022.

Do I have to enroll in all 3 certificates?

No, students can choose the certificate that interests them the most, it can be 1 or all 3.

What will the June session look like?

The June sessions will take place Monday-Friday from 10:00-13:00 TBC.

Will we have class trips?

The Certificate courses are designed to include off-site learning, to complement the academic experience.